

SEPTEMBER PRIZES in Safety's final poster contest in the current series are seen above. The stainless steel meat cutter and the wall can-opener are first and second prizes, respectively, in the popular slogan competition. The slogan will be used in December, and the theme is given as "Freedom From Injury—Safety's Greatest Gift."

Safety Announces August Poster Winners; Gives September's Theme In Contest

Jack Conn, Gen. Machine Shop; Peggy Reynolds, Shift Superintendents, Take First And Second Place

Winners in the August safety poster contest are announced by the Safety Department with Jack Conn, General Machine Shop, taking the first place with his "Go Slow in Snow—Heed Advice on Ice" poster. His award was an antique bedspread.

Second place winner was Peggy Reynolds, Shift Superintendents, who won the electric portable coffee kit.

Conn's poster will be used in the November safety campaign and will appear in bulletin board's throughout the plant. An adaptation of the idea will feature an auto on an uphill grade in snow, and a skater on "thin ice."

Meanwhile, Safety is already accepting entries in the final competition for the December contest. The theme is announced as "Freedom From Injury — Safety's Greatest Gift."

Prizes Listed

Prizes are named as a food slicer, as first place; and a wall can opener as the second place award.

The September contest closes Friday, September 29. All employees in the Y-12 area, plus members of their family, are entitled to enter the competition. It's a good opportunity to let the children go with their imagination. It's often true that wisdom comes "from the mouths of babes." Very few entries have been received from children of Y-12 employees even though they are entitled to enter.

Rules of the contest have been given many times in The Bulletin. The entry should be submitted on eight and one-half by 11 inch paper, and wording on the slogan should not exceed ten words. The sketch can be rough, or a written description of the intended illustration can be included.

Entries become the property of the Safety Department and can not be returned.

All employees in the Y-12 area are urged to get their applications into the Safety Department in this the final contest in the 12-months competition. Only previous contest winners, and members of the Safety Department, are ineligible to enter.

2 More September Promotions Effected

F. Pickering T. Jimmerson

Two additional promotions, effective September 1, have been announced as Fred M. Pickering is elevated from a production machinist in the TW Shop to Craft Foreman in Production Inspection.

Pickering, who received his degree from Tennessee Wesleyan in June, 1961, came to Y-12 June 16, 1954. He lives in Athens with his wife and two children.

The other promotion announced is Thomas H. Jimmerson, promoted from an inspector to craft foreman in Production Inspection. Jimmerson, whose continuous service date goes back to July 2, 1951, is a native of Lanett, Ala. The Jimmersons live on the Knoxville-Oak Ridge Highway.

Is America A 'Delightful' Spy Country?

Former Agent Gives Methods For Red Espionage Efforts

(Editor's Note: The following editorial is reprinted with permission from The Oak Ridger. It points directly to the great danger of loose talk. It is used for Y-12ers who might have missed it in the daily press.)

Perhaps too many of our top scientists and military personnel working on top secret defense matters have been too thoroughly indoctrinated with the movie and TV image of a foreign spy. The fictional spy is easily identifiable. He is swarthy, furtive, and has that gleam in his eye.

Realistically, he probably looks like the average Joe and it is his average appearance and affability that are so disarming.

According to Pawel Monar, one-time high-ranking Polish espionage agent who defected to the West in 1959, he and his fellow agents in the United States picked up some of their most valuable information just by talking to people on trains and in taverns and by eavesdropping around Pentagon lunch stands and corridors. Monar describes the ease with which he was able to gather important fragments for his bosses in the Kremlin in a recent issue of Life magazine. The tidbits, he says, "helped us to build up the mosaic."

A casual meeting on a train with an aerodynamic scientist resulted in much information and photographs of a mass of diagrams in the scientist's briefcase. While Monar and the scientist lingered over dinner, Monar's lieutenant photographed the contents of the briefcase and shipped the material off to Moscow.

Here in Oak Ridge we have a great number of people working on top-secret projects. Billboards around the city warn them to keep their mouths shut.

Not every stranger who strikes up a conversation is a foreign spy. But play it safe by confining the talk to the weather, the major league pennant race, or the Mantle-Maris homerun contest.

A sure way to cut off unwanted talk, we've found, is to pull out your billfold and offer to show snapshots of your kids or grandchildren. We'll bet the most determined spy would slink away from this turn to the conversation.

Seriously, though, let's shut up and not make the United States so "delightful a country in which to carry out espionage."

The luncheon was held Tuesday, September 5, at which time Sloan was presented his 25-Year Certificate. From left are A. E. Perry, Claude E. Hensley, J. M. Case, Sloan and Arnold L. Tilley.

RECEIVING HIS certificate showing 25 years of continuous service with Carbide is Tennyson I. Sloan, right. Presenting Sloan her certificate is Y-12 Plant Superintendent Robert G. Jordan. Sloan celebrated his 25th anniversary with Carbide on August 31.

Luncheon Marks Y-12er's 25th Year With UCC

T. I. Sloan Honored By Superintendents

To mark a very special occasion in the employment life of Tennyson I. Sloan, machine specialist in Beta Four's Heavy Machine Shop, Y-12 officials gathered last Tuesday, September 5, for a luncheon honoring the 25-year veteran.

Present were Y-12 Plant Superintendent Robert G. Jordan, all Y-12 division superintendents, Sloan's immediate line supervisor in the Mechanical Operations Division, and visiting T. E. Lane, from Union Carbide Nuclear Company's Industrial Relations staff.

Sloan officially marked his anniversary with Carbide on August 31. It was on that day 25 years ago that the then 18-year-old "Ted" Sloan became a Carbide at the National Carbon Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

Supt. Jordan made the brief presentation speech, presenting the honored guest with his certificate marking him as an "Old Timer."

Ted Sloan was born in Cleveland, Ohio, July 6, 1918. He served in the United States Army during World War II, four years, most of which time was spent in the Pacific. He is married to the former Nora Ellen Lee, and they live in the Hardin Valley section of Knox County.

In acknowledging the honor paid him, Sloan stated that the luncheon came as a complete surprise, but that he did appreciate the recognition. The entire plant salutes the young "veteran" in his many years of service to Carbide.

OH SAY CAN YOU SUE?

The words of the national anthem, "The Star-Spangled Banner," were written by Baltimorean Francis Scott Key, a lawyer by profession, while he was held prisoner on a British warship.

COFFEE COUNT

Despite popular belief that Americans are big coffee drinkers, the average typical family consumed only 34 pounds of coffee during 1960, less than the amount consumed in 1959.

Y-12 Painter Dies After Short Illness

Buildings and Grounds employees were saddened last week by the death of Ralph J. Strickland, painter, who succumbed after a short illness at Oak Ridge Hospital. Mr. Strickland came to Y-12 June 30, 1954, after employment with Stone and Webster and Roane - Anderson, in Oak Ridge. He was a native of Oliver Springs, Tenn. The young painter died last Tuesday, September 5.

R. J. Strickland

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Myrtle Strickland; daughters Shirley, Annette, Letitia, and Marilyn; sons Jackie, W. M. and Randy, all of Route 2, Oliver Springs; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mache Strickland, Oliver Springs; sisters, Mrs. Edna Ruth Hester and Mrs. Adeline Prater; brothers, Mach H., Gene, Bobby and Bill, all of Oliver Springs, and Jimmy of Harriman, Tenn.

Funeral services were held last Thursday, September 7, at Sharpe's Chapel with the Rev. Leland Thomas and Rev. Kenneth Stubbs officiating. Interment followed in the Orchard View Cemetery, Route 2, Oliver Springs.

Fellow employees extend their sincere sympathy to the survivors.

Credit Union Asks For Home Addresses

Statements No Longer To Be Held At Office

In the past, the Y-12 Employees' Credit Union, on request, refrained from mailing statements each quarter to the homes of members. However, Federal Examiners have directed the Credit Union to begin mailing statements to ALL members.

The Credit Union is urging members to provide some address to which the quarterly statement can be mailed. No more statements can be picked up at the Credit Union offices. The total membership mailing of statements begins in November of this year. No statements will be held in the future.

Y-12ers who have not provided a proper mailing address are urged to do so as soon as possible. The Credit Union stresses that all individual balances and loans are treated as personal confidential information.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gallardo

GALLARDO-HOUNSHELL

Miss Ruth Hounshell and Mr. Frank Gallardo were married Saturday, August 26, at 4 p.m. in a civil ceremony in the home of Mrs. Estelle Goad, LaFollette, Tenn. The bride is employed in Y-12's Chemical Department, and the groom is in the Instrument Department of Oak Ridge National Laboratory.

Mrs. Goad acted as the bride's matron-of-honor, and the groom's best man was B. R. Scott, Kingston.

Several Oak Ridgers attended the ceremony. They were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Noe, Mr. and Mrs. Carl McCown, Urban Schmittz, Martha Beals, Mrs. A. A. Baer and Evelyn Watson. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Noe of Jonesboro, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Scott, Kingston, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jenkins, Clinton.

After a brief wedding trip through Michigan and parts of Canada, the couple is at home at 138 Lancaster Rd., Oak Ridge.

A sign recently seen in a laundromat read: "Please remove your clothing after you've finished your laundry."

Let's remove ourself from the Inner Sanctum and see what's coming off in Y-12:

MAINTENANCE

Electrical 'lows that O. B. Wray vacationed visiting his son down Memphis-way . . . M. Duncan and A. C. Jenkins decided to just relax around home for their vacations . . . C. F. Brewer is enjoying the balmy breezes down in Panama City, Fla. . . M. J. Talley visited the sands and cacti out in the second-largest state in the Union, Texas . . . W. P. Smith took his spouse to San Francisco for two weeks' vacation . . . R. E. Douglas, A. D. Casey, J. L. Watkins and K. W. Rainbolt are other Electrical folk who just lollied around home with nothin' to do.

Some girls are for the world like brown sugar — lumpy and unrefined.

ENGINEERING

Processing Engineering processes through with some choice tidbits . . . especially on Dick Braatz . . . Congratulations are in order for Dick and his wife, Marian, who now have in their possession the latest in "hi-fi" equipment, featuring a brand new model, first shown at St. Mary's on August 31, 1961, at 4:12 a.m. The design is a beautiful baby, "Boy." Model — portable, seven pounds, nine ounces. Owners guarantee: "The new model is designed to bring the maximum of pleasure for a life-time of enjoyment." . . . Also Bob Orrison and Bob White attended the 15th Annual Conference of the Episcopal Church at Sewanee, Tenn. last week-end.

From Mechanical Engineering end comes word . . . Convalescing at home is Lillian Higgins after she was injured in a recent auto accident . . . Johnny Jones is receiving the old red carpet treatment, just transferred in from ORGDP.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

Fire and Guardsmen are all smiles again now that G. E. Gilreath and R. L. Carson are back at work, after recent bouts with surgery . . . Capt. "Catfish" Emmett Moore is vacationing at home, spent his other vacation in Texas and Florida (he tells months-after-the-fact!) . . . The "Big Chief" W. O. Elam vacationed last week getting the youngun's all lined up for school.

Sincere sympathy is extended the J. E. Temple family in the death of their son Danny last week. Temple is in Y-12's Safety Department.

Tom Burkett, of Training, vacationed last week just traipsin' over the estate down at Rockwood, said he might pick a few 'possum grapes and muscadines.

What we don't know may not hurt us . . . but it sure can't do us any good either!

MECHANICAL OPERATIONS

The General Machine Shoppers are sending condolences to R. E. Hester's family in the death of his brother-in-law recently . . . Over the Labor Day week-end O. K. Sergeant took a trip down to Lake Winfield Scott in North Georgia with the 6-Club, which is composed of the Appalachian Trail Hiking Clubs. They had a very enjoyable time swimming, hiking, looking at slides, and discussing business items of the club . . . Shop vacationers include J. E. Hargis, on a two-week jaunt, mainly to get his daughter Sylvia down to Tennessee Wesleyan College in Athens, Tenn. where she will be a freshman this year . . . L. M. Vinson enters his son Terry down Cookeville-way in Tennessee Polytechnic Institute. From there he will go on to Nashville to visit relatives, and then come home in time to get in some fishing and skiing on the waters at Loudon Lake . . . W. O. Thompson will spend his vacation at home in Knoxville, and is going to try to make it out to the Fair . . . K. M. Adkins plans to get in some squirrel huntin' on his vacation . . . and C. C. Edwards is just planning to stay at home.

Also from the Shop comes word that D. D. Woods took off to Myrtle Beach, S. C. for his vacation . . . W. D. Newman stayed home to work around the house and slip in some fishing . . . Other vacationers, who didn't tell, were C. C. Etheridge, O. J. Rhea, L. E. Cantrell, L. L. Spear, D. H. Allen, and J. J. Brook . . . A host of shoppers are ill and best wishes are speeded to them. They are T. J. Smith, G. D. Butters, G. A. Pittman, L. E. LaRue, J. S. Ray, T. S. Buckner, C. E. Gregory and L. Richardson.

From Special Mechanical Production, last week's vacationers with no known plans were W. H. Clark, J. L. Braden, G. E. Tidwell, J. D. Cox and R. Marcum. Another crowd moved out this week for vacations also, including L. R. Chambers, J. S. Stewart is back from a recent vacation in Alabama, reported a fine time, too . . . This one happened to Stewart as he was returning down about Rockwood. He noticed the car in front of him in the traffic was belching flames from underneath. He got the attention of the driver by blowing his horn . . . Then turned around and came back to see if he could help. The occupants were trying to smother the fire which had got up under the hood, with blankets. A bus stopped, and the driver helped put out the fire with an extinguisher. Mr. Stewart points out that it might not be a bad idea if everyone carried a fire extinguisher in his car . . . Jim Patterson is taking a lot of ribbing about that sawed-off shotgun of his . . . He thought maybe that removing a couple of inches from the barrel would improve his skeet-shooting . . . but it didn't. Instead now he's got a shot-gun that won't hit anything . . . says about all it's good for is sowing peas. Transfer-ins are being welcomed, namely . . . C. W. Williams, C. E. Forester, J. C. Chamblee, J. L. Williams, H. L. Woodard, and U. M. Oxford . . . F Area folk are also welcoming in a new flock, M. F. Gilliam, Jr., W. J. Hatcher, O. T. McDaniel, and L. R. Marlar . . . Bob Williams is in St. Mary's Hospital coming along real fine, they say.

A blotter is a porous fabric you look for while the ink dries on its own.

BADMINTON PROVED POPULAR AMONG the grown-ups at the D Shift record-breaking picnic. A smashing 530 happy picnickers showed up for the big affair.

CHILDREN ALL OVER THE PLACE at Concord are seen gathering for a new game with prizes and all. The August 31 D Shift outing at Concord Park proved particularly popular with the smaller set.

Record-Breaking Crowd Of 530 Attends D Shift Family Picnic On August 31

D Shifters claim that records are made only to be broken. Thus, when a recent rival shift claimed a record attendance of 372 at a picnic, they smiled and went right on with their big plans for the Annual Family Picnic, held at Concord Park, Thursday, August 31.

A whopping 530 appeared, showing that sufficient groundwork had been laid in the picnic plans. There appeared barbecue, both pork and beef on the menu, baked beans, potato chips, cookies and drinks for all.

Games for the kids and games for the grown-up kids filled out the well-defined party. The caffeine fiends found plenty of steaming java to warm their innards as the kids consumed gallons of soft drinks.

Y-12ers now have a new goal to shoot at when breaking picnic records . . . thanks to the D Shift men and women who can teach anybody a trick or two on outings.

Golfers Clash . . .

Heads Roll In All-Carbide Tourney; Many Y-12ers Still Live To Play

Art Hines, Carl Dorr, Bill Maddux, George Wylie All Move Into Gear In Championship Division

The first round of the All Carbide Golfing tournament ended last week with many Y-12ers advancing into the second round. In the championship flight Y-12ers Art Hines, Carl Dorr, Bill Maddux and George Wylie all moved into positions to play opponents in matched play for round number two.

No scores were turned in on the Consolation flight.

FLIGHT 1

Y-12ers Bill Phillips, Bill Ingle and Newt Hamby were winners in flight number one, downing M. C. Taylor (Oak Ridge National Laboratory); P. W. Harris (Oak Ridge Gaseous Diffusion Plant); and W. M. Reynolds (Charlotte Hall) consecutively. Phillips and Ingle are slated to clash, and Hamby is scheduled to be pitted against ORGDP's Bob Toucey.

FLIGHT 2

Ed Gambill of Y-12 advanced beyond the second round by defeating fellow Y-12er J. E. Bartholomew, then downing E. L. Olson (ORNL). Y-12's B. I. V. Bailey and J. H. Boyd were eliminated in first and second round play. Harry Shatley of Y-12 advanced to the semis. He is pitted against Gambill for championship of this flight.

FLIGHT 3

Gene O'Hara is the only Y-12ers remaining in this flight, having downed Sy Koppin, ORGDP. He is slated to go against ORNL's John Battle in the second round. Al Sawyer fell in the first round to ORNL's R. H. Beidel.

FLIGHT 4

Two Y-12ers remain in the fourth flight as Bill Hamill and E. L. Hendrix both knocked out opponents in the first round. They are scheduled to battle out round number two. ORGDP's Ken Cook will take on the winners for the championship.

FLIGHT 5

Sewell Brown and W. C. Collins, both of Y-12, knocked out opponents in round one, as did another Y-12er, G. W. Mitchel. Mitchel is pitted against ORGDP's J. M. Anderson. The winner of this match will play Brown or Collins for number one spot.

FLIGHT 5-A

C. D. Robinson, Y-12, has advanced to the finals in flight number 5-A. H. R. Butler also advanced by taking a forfeit from N. O. Case, or ORNL. Butler is pitted against Roy Walker, ORNL. The winner of the match will be scheduled against Robinson.

FLIGHT 6-A

Y-12er W. C. Hoppe downed his first opponent, and is scheduled to take on ORNL's Don Gardiner in the second go-round, as Gardiner knocked out Y-12's Karl E. Kahley. Clyde Bowles and C. C. Morgan, Y-12's both, advanced also in round one.

FLIGHT 7

No Y-12er is left in flight seven and the only plantman entered, E. N. Rogers, fell in his first match against ORNL's J. H. Buttram. C. F. Hall, ORGDP, and Bob Minturn, ORNL, both advanced, as did H. B. McBride, ORGDP.

FLIGHT 8

Leo Scalf, Y-12, defeated fellow Y-12er, E. C. Ellis in the first round. He is the only Y-12er left in flight 8, and is slated to go against Tom Denton, ORGDP. Other winners were ORGDP's R. S. Snead, and ORNL's G. W. Case.

FLIGHT 9

This flight is also up to the final round of play, as both finalists are Y-12ers, J. C. Thompson and Jay Holzknecht. Holzknecht advanced by defeating Y-12er Roy Roberts by forfeit and downed another Y-12er Jack Thomson in actual play. Thompson ousted J. M. Schmitt, ORNL, and Ted Chapman, also of ORNL.

FLIGHT 9-A

C. R. McGinnis and A. C.

Wright, Y-12's only representatives in this flight, fell early. McGinnis was victim to W. T. Grumbach, ORGDP; while Wright fell to ORGDP's Fred Johnson.

FLIGHT 10

W. A. Rutherford and Jim George, both Y-12ers, have advanced in flight 10 and stand pitted against each other in the second round of play. Rutherford knocked B. R. Webb, ORGDP, from the tournament; while George kayoed Ed Owings, Y-12. Other winners in this flight are J. C. Banter, ORNL, and Sy Smiley, ORGDP.

FLIGHT 10-A

No Y-12er is listed as participating in this flight. ORGDP's T. Carter and K. H. Dripps remain in play, as do R. A. DeLoor, ORGDP, and Robeson Carter, ORNL.

FLIGHT 10-B

Y-12's Lamar Matthews remains alive, going to the finals, in this flight. He downed S. O. Lewis, ORNL, and L. C. Toomer, ORGDP to move into this enviable position. Harry Eldridge, ORNL, and ORGDP's O. B. Young are pitted against each other in the second round.

FLIGHT 11

Two Y-12ers moved into the second round as Jim Crone defeated ORNL's Doug Gates, and B. B. Stanton downed ORGDP's Jack L. Gamble. Stanton is slated to go against Jim Kerry, ORNL; while Crone is pitted against Pete Gregory, ORNL.

FLIGHT 12

Y-12's R. W. Dehoney in round two fell victim to R. B. Strickland, ORNL. Dehoney had previously knocked out Bob McNees, ORNL. Tom Douglass picked up a forfeit from ORNL's John E. Baker, to remain the only Y-12er alive in this flight.

FLIGHT 13

In this flight Earl Crow defeated fellow Y-12er O. E. Gilcrease to move into the second round, and become the last Y-12er alive. He is slated against Karl Rapp, from ORGDP. Harvey Keese, ORNL, has advanced to final play.

FLIGHT 14

Y-12er R. J. Breman remains in there in this flight by his win over another Y-12er, J. R. Parker. Harlan Wright fell to J. R. Collins, from ORNL, after winning a forfeit game from Boyd Lynch, ORNL.

A BIG SILVER MEDAL was brought back from the recent nationwide rifle shoot held at Camp Perry, Ohio, by Carl Brewster, from Y-12's Medical Department. He went into final qualifying rounds of firing, and also instructed other shooters in the use of firearms.

Carl Brewster Awarded Silver Medal At National Rifle And Pistol Match

Five Y-12ers Enjoy Competing Against Civilians, Servicemen In 70-Year Old Marksmanship Meet

The high-light of the recent National Rifle and Pistol Matches, held at Camp Perry, Ohio, as far as Y-12 is concerned, was the sterling performance of Carl Brewster, of the Medical Department. Brewster actually participated in the Wimbledon shoot-off, a rifle meet at 1000 yards, earning 100-

12 V's from 20 shots. He lost in the tie-breaking match pitted against an M-1 service rifle. In the second round he fired 50-4 V's at the score targets.

After the two sessions, only a Marine, an Army Sergeant, and one civilian remained in the 70-year old match. The National Matches were organized by the United States Congress in 1903. In 1916, civilians entered the competition for the first time. Heretofore it had been limited to entries from the U. S. armed forces.

Also another honor came to Brewster at the match. He was given the job of instructing the Herrick Trophy Team match, a six-man team which fired at 1000 yards.

All Y-12ers attending the meets took part in the Small Arms Firing School and received instructors certificates, which qualify them to teach other civilians the fine art of pistolry. Other Y-12ers attending the meet were Joe Brady, Machine Maintenance; Ed Bailey, Production Inspection; Phil Vogelgesang, Area Five Maintenance; and Al Blay, Special Mechanical Production.

For his fine marksmanship

Brewster received a silver medal from officials at the famous meet.

All five Y-12ers reported enjoying the meet to the hilt and picking up many good pointers which should improve their shooting.

16 Teams Open Big Classic Bowling Loop

Another bowling league broke ice last week, as the Classic teams got in on the game, this year with 16 teams raring to go. In the week's play, the Has Beens blanked the Smelters and the Playboys took the Screwballs, both to the full count of four. Three point wins saw the Swingers over the Rebels, the Rippers rip through the Eightballs, the Cubs maul the Tigers, the Markers biting the Wasps and the Sportsmen blanking the All Stars.

Dick Brothers, Playboys, had the high scratch game of the night with a 39, boosted to a 239 on handicap scoring. Len Hart, Bumpers, had the high scratch on series with 587, while R. W. Vanderpool, also of the Bumper team, had handicap series tops with 596. The Rippers just about swept the board with 898 scratch single scoring, 993 single handicap, and 2530 team scratch series points. The Bumpers came through the handicap series tops with 2808.

League standing follows:

Phillips-Leach Whittles' Tops

20th Match Sees George-Newman 2nd

The Whittles Golf League for Y-12ers wound up play last week in its twentieth match. Bill Phillips and D. F. Leach were the uncontested winners with Jim George and Ted Newman coming in as second-place winners. Matches of the final week saw the winners split one and one-half points with George-Newman. Other split scores were Perry-Ball and Galle-Troutman. Morgan-Campbell took three easy points via forfeit, and Kovach-Marrow took two points from Hendrix-Parker.

Low scratch-man of the week was Tom Perry with a 39; Paul Galle was handicap winner with a 32.

Final league standing follows:

Team	W	L
Phillips-Leach	47	13
George-Newman	43½	16½
Perry-Ball	37½	22½
Hendrix-Parker	34½	25½

Mixed League Rolls In Play

O'Kain, Rackley; Jago, Ratjen Top First Night

Another Y-12 bowling league entered the picture last week as the Mixed League rolled into action. Ruby O'Kain and Ann Rackley, of the Toppers and Cool Cats respectively, set the alleys afire for the distaff side, taking scratch and handicap honors. Ruby had a 183 scratch game, and a 463 for scratch series game. Ann took handicap singles with a 229 and handicap series with a 594.

On the male side of the fence Harold Ratjen, Phantoms, showed the gang that retirement doesn't hinder the old score by taking a 199 scratch game and a 229 handicap game. Bob Jago, Toppers, was series winner with a 511 scratch, boosted to a 577 by handicap.

Winning teams saw the Ghosts take three points from the Goofers, and the Toppers top the Scrappers by the same score. Two and one-half points were taken by the Phantoms over the Alley Cats. Two pointers saw the Cool Cats split with the Pin Plasters.

League standing follows:

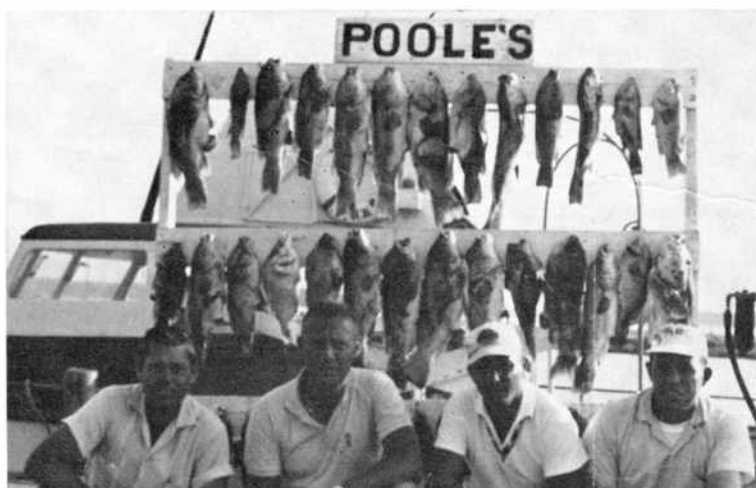

Team	W	L
Ghosts	3	1
Toppers	3	1
Phantoms	2½	1½
Cool Cats	2	2
Pin Plasters	2	2
Alley Cats	1½	2½

Peons Play Codgers Monday For Second Berth In Slo Pitch

The play-off in the Carbide Slo Pitch League last week saw two Oak Ridge Gaseous Diffusion Plant teams, the Odds 'N Ends clash with the Codgers to determine winners of the first half of the season. The Codgers eked through 6 to 5.

Line scores: R H E
Codgers 6 10 5
Odds 'N Ends 5 7 4
Batteries: Codgers: Iacovino and Johnson. Odds 'N Ends: Barkow and Miller with Lemon pitching in the sixth.

Y-12's own Peons will have to play the ORGDP Codgers to see who is league champions for second place. The Kentucky Wonders took first place easily, by capping the first and second half of league play. The play-off game is scheduled for next Monday, September 18, at the Midtown field, Oak Ridge.

JUST TO SHOW WHAT a small world this world really can be, Burkett Bailey, from Safety, along with H. R. Butler, Product Processing; and E. P. Braden, Chemical, all took their families recently to Virginia Beach for a vacation. They are the first three from the left in the above picture. A. R. Brown, Alloy Shop, spotted in an Anderson County car at the beach, was invited to come along on a fishing trip. He's the fourth one in the group, from left. They all ended up knowing each other, and catching this monumental string of tautogs. (They proclaim these to be fish, but the word sounds more like some kind of forbidden game.)
